The commencement date for the CSA Award is agreed above with Section Scouter. This date should be in the future, by a few weeks, so that this application has time to be processed - it is best to wait until you receive an Award Logbook /receipt before an applicant starts their Award journey.

Agreed Starting Date

(Date in the near future of this application)

Section Scouter's Declaration

I have met with the youth member above and discussed their Award journey, how I can support them and agreed the necessary Award challenges. I will support and continually assess as appropriate. The young person will commence their Award Journey no earlier than receipt of application.

Log Books will be sent to Section Scouter

Scouts should not embark on the Chief Scout Award until they have discussed and decided to pursue the Award. Their Chief Scout Award challenges should be created and agreed around this discussion and should address and fulfil the needs of the individual Scout.

The registration fee for the Beaver Scout and Cub Scout is €8 (no sterling equivalent) to cover postage, record book and badge/award (Replacement Books are €10).

The payment should be made payable to 'Scouting Ireland' and sent to Chief Scout Award Administrator, Scouting Ireland, Larch Hill, Dublin 16.
